

2021 VIRTUAL BIKE MONTH DELAWARE

Bike to Work Day | May 19, 2021

DelDOT bicyclists! Celebrate Bike to Work Day along with the City of Dover on Wednesday May 19, 2021. The day begins at the City's Annual Bike-In-Social at the Dover Library. The DelDOT group will be leaving for the Bike-In-Social from the DelDOT bike shelter (in front of the Administration Building at 800 S. Bay Road) at 7:30 a.m. with guest speakers starting at the library at 8:00 a.m.

Can't join the event in person? Participate virtually this year. Bike to work, bike to shop, bike to eat, bike to the park, etc. during Bike to Work Week, May 17 through May 23. Then, post your photos using hashtag, #DelDOTBTWD and tag @DelawareDOT on Facebook/Twitter or send photos to DOTpublic@delaware.gov to be featured in the DelDOT newsletter.

Everyone who participates will receive a free t-shirt. Plus, enjoy water and other giveaways during the event.

To sign-up for the in-person or virtual ride, e-mail John T. Fiori, Bicycle Coordinator at john.fiori@delaware.gov by Friday May 7, 2021. Shirts are limited one per participant and while supplies last.

Please bicycle safely: Ride in the direction of traffic. Obey all stop signs, traffic lights and lane markings. Always be visible and predictable; wear bright clothing, a helmet and signal all turns.
